

Professor Jonathan Foster (Neuropsychology)

ACCREDITATIONS

American Medical Association Guides to the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment, 5th Ed.
WorkCover

QUALIFICATIONS

FRMS First Class (Hons) DPhil (Oxon) PGDip.Neuropsych MAPS FCCN MRIP
CPsychol (UK) CSci (UK) AFBPS (UK)
NATO/Royal Society International Fellow in Neuropsychology, University of Toronto
Doctorate of Neuroscience and Neuropsychology, University of Oxford (Full Scholarship & University Tutor)
Psychology, Philosophy and Mathematics (First Class Honours), University of Manchester

SPECIAL INTERESTS

Assessing educational and occupational outcomes for individuals with brain injuries
Capacity assessments (e.g. evaluation of legal and financial decision-making capacity)
Assessing impact of focal or diffuse brain injuries on brain functioning and mental capacity (e.g. traumatic brain injuries, dementia)

AWARDS

National Health & Medical Research Council, Wellcome Trust, Nuffield Foundation, Royal Society, Australian Research Council, 'Brain', European Training Programme in Brain and Behaviour Research (European Science Foundation)
Professorial Chairs - Awarded Internationally in Neuropsychology (Australia and United Kingdom)

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

National Executive Committee of British Neuropsychological Society
National Executive Committee of Australian College of Clinical Neuropsychologists/Special Interest Group in Rehabilitation (Australian Psychological Society)
International University and Hospital Human Research Ethics Committees