

Dr Sandra McBurnie

Occupational Physician

Qualifications	MBBS University of Sydney	1982
	BA University of Newcastle	1994
	MMedSci (clinical Epidemiology) University of Newcastle	2002
	Grad DipOHS University of Newcastle	2003
	Fellow Royal Australasian College of Physicians Faculty of Occupational and Environmental Medicine (FAFOEM)	2008
Memberships	Fellow Australasian Faculty of Occupational and Environmental Medicine - AFOEM (RACP)
	Member Australian and New Zealand Society of Occupational Medicine (ANZSOM)
Appointments and Accreditations	Member of NSW regional committee AFOEM	Current
	NSW Representative on AFOEM council	Current
	Training Supervisor, AFOEM	Current
	Director of Training, AFOEM	2012 - 2015
	National Standard for Health Assessment of Rail Safety Worker – re-accredited February 2017
	Authorised Health Practitioner (AHP) SIRA
	AMA 5 TH ed _Guides to Evaluation of Permanent Impairment WorkCover Guidelines (completed 2013)
AMA 4 TH ed _Guides to Evaluation of Permanent Impairment MAA Guidelines- (completed January 2017)
Employment	Consultant Occupational Physician - MLCOA and self employed.	2012 – current
	Medicolegal reports for: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Parties injured in motor vehicle accidents and in the workplace• Assessment of permanent impairment• Fitness for duty assessments• S36 S57 assessments• DVA assessments• TPD and income protection assessment• Public Liability

Fire and Rescue NSW Consultant Occupational Physician	2018 – current
HPOM Consultant Occupational Physician	2020 - current
Hunter Industrial Medicine Consultant Occupational Physician	2007-2018
NSW Police Force Senior Medical Officer	2014-2016
Northern Occupational Health Occupational Medicine Consultant	2006-2007
University of Newcastle Lecture in Occupational Medicine for Bachelor in Occupational and Environmental Health	2003-2006
AGHS/HSA Newcastle Medical Adviser, Occupational Medicine	1997-2005
General practice within the Hunter Valley and Part-time Medical Officer at Newcastle Cardiac Services supervising cardiac assessment	1988 – 1996
St Vincent's Hospital Sydney / Fairfield Hospital Sydney - Intern and resident and registrar (accident and emergency Fairfield Hospital)	1982 – 1988:

