

Dr Malcolm Fraser Wallace

Orthopaedic Surgeon

MBBS FRACS FA Orth A CIME

Graduated from University of Queensland in 1979, entered internship with QLD Health in Royal Brisbane Hospital and subsequently provided services in Mt Isa Base Hospital for two years before entering the Advanced Surgical Training Programme.

Achieved Part 1 of the Surgical Training Programme in Mt Isa Base Hospital before completing Part 2 of the Advanced Orthopaedic Training Programme in Princess Alexandra Hospital, Royal Brisbane Hospital, and Townsville General Hospital.

Entered public and private Orthopaedic practice in New England Health District in 1989, until 2000, also visiting Braingra Private Hospital and being appointed as an Orthopaedic VMO at Coffs Harbour District Hospital.

Relocated to Queensland in 2000, undertaking public hospital appointments at Logan Hospital and Redlands Hospital, and private appointments in the Mater Hospital in Redland and South Brisbane as an Orthopaedic VMO, also securing an appointment at 2Health Support Battalion, Enoggera, as a Reserve Australian Army Officer.

