

Dr Rachel Paisley

MBBS FRANZCP

Psychiatrist

Since gaining fellowship, Dr Rachel Paisley has worked as a Psychiatrist in the private health system. Dr Paisley has a particular interest in perinatal psychiatry as well as continuing to work in general adult psychiatry.

Education	MBBS University of New South Wales	2002
	HSC (Abbotsleigh) TER 99.5	1995
Current Appointment	Private outpatients and inpatients at St John of God Medical Centre, Burwood. Around 1/3 of my patients are perinatal	2018-current
	Attainment of Fellowship to RANZCP	2017
Previous Appointments	Mix of perinatal and general adult psychiatry St John of God Burwood Completion of training	2016-2017
	Perinatal psychiatry St John of God Hospital Burwood Completed infant observation course via the Institute of Psychiatry	2016
	Perinatal psychiatry St John of God Hospital Burwood	2015
	Community Mental Health (general adult) Maroubra Centre, Prince of Wales Hospital	2015
	Care Team and Inpatient Mental Health Unit Sutherland Hospital Passed clinical exams	2014
	Consultation Liaison Prince of Wales Hospital	2014
	Intellectual Disability Kogarah Developmental Assessment Service (St George Hospital)	2013
	Six months Child and Adolescent Psychiatry (inpatient as well as outpatient Adolescent Service), Prince of Wales Hospital Six months Drug and Alcohol, St Vincents Hospital	2010
	Six months Child and Adolescent Psychiatry (outpatient) St George Hospital	2009
	Locum work at private psychiatric hospitals. Passed written exams	2008-2009

DR RACHEL PAISLEY

www.MEDirect.com.au P 1300 001 633 E bookings@MEDirect.com.au

Consultation Liaison, St Vincent's Hospital, interrupted by commencement of maternity leave.	2007
Six months adult inpatient, Lismore Base Hospital. Six months Consultation Liaison, Prince Of Wales Hospital	2006
Commencement of basic training in psychiatry at The Royal Darwin Hospital. Six months in an adult inpatient setting and six months in an adult community clinic.	2005
This included significant exposure to indigenous mental health issues and an appreciation of the complexities in remote mental health service delivery.
Intern/RMO- Bankstown-Lidcombe Hospital (seconded to Campbelltown and Camden hospitals)	2003-2004

